CONGRATULATIONS JERSEY CITY!

UPDATE

San Francisco was the winner of the contest, but don't count Jersey City out!

Kudos to everyone who participated in the FITC event & to Jersey City Hilltop area resident & city planning employee Tanya for a job well done in submitting an excellent competition appl.

The "Farms in the City" (FITC) event made the Top 3 Finalist category for GOOD Magazine's City R+D Competition!

We share the Final 3 category with the following cities:

Chattanooga

Jersey City

San Francisco

GOOD Magazine's panel of judges will make their final selection the week of October 25, 2010. Thanks again to all FITC participants and supporters for making this event such a tremendous success on so many fronts!!!

The Jersey City Green Team will forward the winning city information as soon as it's made available. Keep your fingers crossed!!
