There's no denying it now. The temperatures are colder at night and leaves are starting to fall. There are plenty of peppers, herbs, kale and a few tomatoes and chard plants left.

The Square Foot Garden Box in the Fall.

Nothing beats the aroma of fresh basil from the garden!

Stay tuned next week for the indoor growing season. Herbs like Rosemary, Sage and greens along with tiny tomatoes! Forcing of Amaryllis Bulbs too!

Meanwhile, here is the Queen of the Evening - The Moonflower.
